Use of Your Personal Information

This privacy notice explains why we collect information about you and how that information may be used.

Our health care professionals who provide you with our services maintain records about your health and any treatment or care you have received previously. These records help to provide our clients with the best possible healthcare.

Your records may exist in several formats including electronic, paper or a mixture of both, and we deploy many working organisations and approaches to ensure that such information is maintained within a confidential and secure environment. The records which we could hold about you may include the following information: -

UK GDPR Privacy Notice Website Template

- Personal details relating to you, including your address and contact details, carer, legal representative and parents' emergency contact details
- Any contact we have had or intend to have with you such as appointments, clinic or surgery visits, home visits, etc.
- Notes and reports about your health which is deemed to be of a sensitive nature
- Details about your referral, diagnostics procedures, treatment and care
- Results of any additional relevant investigations
- Relevant information from other health professionals, relatives or those who care for you

To ensure you receive the highest levels of care, your records will be used to facilitate the care that we provide. Anonymised information held about you could, on occasions, be used to help protect the health and wellbeing of the general public and to help us manage our contracts with commissioners. Information could also be used within our organisation for the purposes of clinical audits which in turn will provide monitoring of the quality of the services we provide.

Some of this information will be used for statistical purposes and we will ensure that individuals cannot be identified. For situations where we may contribute to research projects, we will always gain your explicit consent before releasing any relevant information.

Legal basis for Processing

Our ability to process your personal and healthcare data is covered by UK GDPR article 6 and for the processing of personal sensitive data by Article 9(2)h which indicates that processing of data is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine, for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the management of health or social care systems.

Maintaining the Confidentiality of Your Records

We will take all possible care to protect your privacy and will only use information collected with the law including: -

- Data Protection Act 2018 including UK GDPR
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Common Law Duty of Confidentiality
- Health and Social Care Act 2012 (if appropriate)
- Codes of Confidentiality, Information Security and Records Management

Our staff are all trained and briefed in data protection principles and understand they have a legal obligation to keep information about you confidential. They also understand that information about you will only be shared with other parties if there is an agreed need to do so or a legal reason. We will only share your data without your permission if there are very exceptional circumstances (i.e. life or death situations), where the law requires information to be passed on and / or in accordance with the Caldicot Principle 7 e.g. to share or not to share. This means that health and social care professionals should have the confidence to share information in the best interests of their patients within the framework set out by the Caldicott Principles. Whilst the Caldicott Principles were originally developed for NHS purposes, we have adopted the underlying principles in order to align with best practice.

UK GDPR Privacy Notice Website Template

All personal information that we manage is stored within the UK within a secure environment and we always use suitably protected methods and systems to transfer your personal information.

Partner Organisations

It may be possible that we will share your information with other organisations, if this is required, we will apply very strong controls. The current organisations who we share data with includes: -

- NHS Trusts / Specialist Trusts
- Independent Contractors such as dentists, opticians, pharmacists
- Private Sector Providers
- Voluntary Sector Providers
- Ambulance Trusts
- Clinical Commissioning Groups
- NHS England
- GP Federations and Alliances
- Primary Care Networks
- NHS England
- National Institute for Health and Care Excellence
- Care Quality Commission
- NHS Improvement
- NHS Shared Business Services
- Social Care Services
- Local Authorities
- Education Services
- Fire and Rescue Services
- Police
- Other 'Data Processors'

It is noted that the above list is not exhaustive, and we may contract with other external organisations to undertake processing of your personal information. These 3rd party organisations will abide with our stringent contractual conditions regarding the protection of personal data.

In some cases, you will be requested to provide positive consent if we intend to share your personal details with other organisations.

OpenSAFELY Analytics Platform

NHS England has been directed by the government to establish and operate the OpenSAFELY COVID-19 Service and the OpenSAFELY Data Analytics Service. These services provide a secure environment that supports research, clinical audit, service evaluation and health surveillance for COVID-19 and other purposes.

Each GP practice remains the controller of its own GP patient data but is required to let approved users run queries on pseudonymised patient data. This means identifiers are removed and replaced with a pseudonym.

UK GDPR Privacy Notice Website Template

Only approved users are allowed to run these queries, and they will not be able to access information that directly or indirectly identifies individuals.

Patients who do not wish for their data to be used as part of this process can register type 1 opt out with their GP.

Access to Personal Information and Your Rights

You have a right under the Data Protection Act 2018, to request access to view or to obtain a copy of what information the organisation holds about you and to have it modified should it be inaccurate. The process to access your records is known as a Subject Access Request (SAR) and the way it works is outlined below: -

- Your SARs request must be made in writing to the organisation's Caldicott Guardian at the address shown above
- The latest regulations state that there is no charge to have a printed copy of your information provided
- The request will be reviewed and if possible, completed within one month (subject to our possible requests for further clarification for you)
- You will need to provide adequate proof of your identity before we will release the requested details (eg full name, address, date of birth, NHS number and details of your request), you must also provide two forms of identification

In addition to the right of access, under the Data Protection Act 2018, you will also have the following rights: -

- Erasure, which is the right to request that your personal data is removed from our systems be they paper or electronic – please note that under certain circumstances we are legal obliged to maintain a copy of your data for contractual and or statutory reasons
- Restriction of processing, this is the right for you to request that we only process certain parts of your data
- Objection – you have the right to object to the way that we are processing your data
- Data portability – this concerns the right to request that we provide a copy of your data in an easily transportable format.
- Automatic processing – you have the right to object to the way we automatically process data – in the case of our organisation we do not, at present, carry out automatic processing of your data
- If you have provided us with your consent to process your data for the purpose of providing our services (other than for direct healthcare), you have the right to withdraw this at any time. In order to do this should contact us by emailing or writing to the organisation.

National Data Opt-out

The national data opt-out was introduced on 25 May 2018, enabling patients to Opt-out from the use of their data for research or planning purposes, in line with the recommendations of the National Data Guardian in her Review of Data Security, Consent and Opt-outs.

UK GDPR Privacy Notice Website Template

If you wish to opt-out as part of this process, please contact the practice and we will take the necessary action to add you name to the Opt-out list

Retention of your data

Your data will be retained for no longer than is absolutely necessary and in accordance with our Documentation Management Lifecycle Policy and the associated Schedule of Retention

Withdrawal of Consent

If you have provided us with consent to process your data for the purpose of providing our services (other than direct care), you have the right to withdraw this at any time. In order to do this should contact us in writing

Cookies

This website makes use of cookies to optimise user experience. By using our website, you consent to all cookies in accordance with our Cookie Policy.

Updating Personal Details

If any of your details e.g. your name, address or other personal data have changed or are incorrect you have a responsibility to inform the professional treating you who will arrange for the necessary updates to be made. This will help us to ensure that the data we hold about you is accurate and complete.

Mobile Numbers & Email Addresses

If you provide us with your mobile phone number, we may use this to send you reminders about your appointments or other health screening information. Please let us know if you do not wish to receive reminders on your mobile. If you provide us with your email address, we may use this to send you reminders to make an appointment for a review. Please let us know if you do not wish to receive correspondence by email.

Notification

The Data Protection Act 2018 requires organisations that control data to register with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) website www.ico.org.uk

The organisation is registered with the ICO as a Data Controller under the Data Protection Act 2018. The registration number is Z9889522 and can be viewed online in the public register at <http://www.ico.gov.uk/>

Complaints

If you are happy for your data to be extracted and used for the purposes described in this Privacy Notice, then you do not need to do anything. If you have any concerns about how your data is shared, then please contact us:
